

Tartars Buy Toys for Tots

Torrance High School is cooperating with Los Angeles Central A and Central B of the Delta Sigma Theta project.

The Tartar Student Council purchased $300 worth of toys with money raised from the proceeds of a dance and a campus collection from the student body at large.

Leading Citizens Honored

Three community leaders were named to receive Outstanding Citizen Awards at the 18th semi-annual Scholarship Recognition Banquet sponsored by local Kiwanis Clubs at Harbor College.

Named by the San Pedro Kiwanis was Dave Gray, freelance writer and former staff member of the San Pedro News Pilot, who was recognized for his years of service to the San Pedro club.

The Wilmington Kiwanis named Cliff F. Ellis as their Outstanding Citizen recognizing his years of service as secretary to the club.

Louis Beroud was named by the Lomita Kiwanis. His activities in the scouting movement in which he aided in building a scout hall and obtaining a bus for transportation of one of the Kiwanis troops was noted.

Also honored at the dinner were Harbor College students named to the President's List, members of Alpha Gamma Sigma scholarship organization and Spars and Tars service groups.

The Lomita Club was host for the dinner. Music was presented by the Harbor College Choir directed by Robert Billings.

The toys were then wrapped and labeled by members of the Student Council and the Tartar Ladies, a girl's honor society. The toys, plus a coloring book and crayons for each four and five year old Head Starter, were delivered Wednesday to five Head Start centers in Southwest Los Angeles. Fifty Tartars and 22 students from Torrance Elementary Schools made these deliveries.

Each gift was labeled with the name of the intended recipient. Terry Waters and Kim Brooks, Torrance High School seniors, were the Santa Clauses. The remaining 70 students acted as Santa's helpers and were appropriately costumed.

The toys were purchased from George Nathan in Los Angeles who generously gave substantial discount enabling the Torrance students to stretch their funds measurably.

Guitar Classes Planned

A class in "Folk Guitar for the Classroom Teacher" who is an "advanced beginner" will be offered by UCLA Extension, Tuesdays, Jan. 7 to March 11, 7 through 9:30 p.m., in Room 229, North High School.

Though planned for teachers, the course will also be useful to parents and those working with scouts, church groups and other organizations, according to the instructor, Mary Ellen Clark.

No formal musical training is required, she emphasized. The class will focus on singing, harmonization by ear, ear training and transposition. Folksongs are universal in appeal. Students must provide a "Spanish" or "classic" guitar for their own use.

Fee for the class is $45.

MILK DELIVERY

Milk, five gallons of it, is the only fresh food delivered daily to Sealab III, the Navy's diving laboratory 600 feet down in the Pacific off the California coast.

Christmas cheer comes once a year

There really is a "thing" that comes over us every Christmas. It's beautiful. Little miracles of forgive and forget happen all over the world. We'd like to see this feeling continue the other 11 months of the year.

It's hard, we know. After all, it isn't Christmas every day. But see what you can do. Merry Christmas to you and yours...and a Happy New Year.
